REPUBLICAN PLATFORM JOY TO DEMOCRATS

News Of Straddle On League Sends Spirits Soaring in Capitol Circles

Washington, June 12.—Whatever Republicans may think of the treaty plank agreed upon at Chicago, administration circles regard it as an admission of weakness and a direct evasion of the League of Nations issue. The description most commonly used by Democratic leaders was "straddle."

When news of the compromise reached Washington, Democratic optimism, which has been steadily mounting for two months, and which has gone up by jumps during the temporary deadlock at Chicago, took a sudden bound further upward. The rise was as definitely marked as the line on a stock chart following a market rise of twenty points.

Statements by the few Republicans here that the plank was "all right," and that the "middle of the road was always the proper course," were ridiculed by the Democrats. They asserted that while President Wilson had thrown the League of Nations into the campaign by his open espousal of the Virginia platform, the Republicans at Chicago, had "dodged" the direct issue.

"Absurd," says Senator Democrats were frank in declaring their belief that the Republican party had been forced into a corner, and was manifesting signs of nervousness through its attitude at Chicago.

One Democratic Senator who is close to the White House commented on the dummy plank printed here by saying:

"It's absurd. Any party that goes before the people this year has got to tell them whether or not it is for the League of Nations. This weird piece of language does not even mention the league. And I wish you would tell me now anybody can advise a plank that can fit at the same time what Hiram Johnson and Henry Cabot Lodge think about the league."

A MATRIMONIAL SURPRISE

Rev. J. Walter Greep, of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and Miss Hildred Barnard, of Beaver Dam, gave their many friends quite a surprise last Thursday evening, when they were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Moore, at the parsonage in Beaver Dam, Ky.

Miss Barnard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Barnard, and is one of Ohio County's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies. Bro. Greep, is the eldest son of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Greep, of Henderson, Ky., and has attained considerable success for a youth, being now pastor of the First Christian church, of Tuscaloosa, and at the same time a teacher of English and Biblical Research in the University of Alabama.

After a brief stay in Hartford, the newly weds left, Tuesday, for Henderson to visit the groom's parents a few days before returning to their southern home.

We desire to join their many Kentucky friends in congratulations, and sincerely wish them every pleasure and success that it is possible for an ambitious and christian couple to obtain in the Sunny Southland.

MISS ELIZABETH MOORE LEAVES TO TAKE UNIVERSITY COURSE

Miss Elizabeth Moore and the Ohio County Chapter of the American Red Cross have received a signal honor. 28 Red Cross workers in the district composed of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky have been selected to take a course in the Ohio State University at Columbus. Only three from this section of Kentucky were selected, Miss Moore being one of the number. The course includes the following: a rural life seminar; rural organization, rural sociology; and a field work course. Miss Moore left, Wednesday, and will be in attendance from June 21 to August 14.

HARDING AND COOLIDGE CHOSEN REPUBLICAN STANDARD BEARERS

Resort To Selection Of Dark Horse When Deadlock Between Wood and Lowden Cannot Be Broken.

Warren G. Harding

Calvin Coolidge

Chicago, June 12.—Warren G. Wood and Lowden running a neck and neck race for leadership on four more ballots, while the strength of the California candidate dwindled steadily. In the meantime Harding pushed his total to 133, the individual delegates in many states swinging to him from the columns of the leaders and of various sons.

As a running mate the convention named Governor Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, upsetting a plan of a combination of Harding backers to nominate for the place Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, of Wisconsin.

The collapse of the forces of Gov. Frank O. Lowden and their transfer to Senator Harding put the Ohio candidate over. General Wood lost heavily, however, when the Harding drift began, and Senator Johnson, the third of the trio leaders on the early balloting yesterday, also went steadily down hill.

Entering the convention four days ago as a candidate distinctly of the "dark horse" class, Senator Harding got only sixty-four votes on the first ballot yesterday and on the second he dropped to fifty-six. When the convention adjourned last night at the end of the fourth ballot he had sixty-one.

Harding Was Dark Horse. In an all-night conference among the party chiefs, however, he was mentioned many times as the one most likely to break the combination deadlock should neither Wood, Lowden nor Johnson take a commanding lead today. They all failed to do so.

WILL OPERATE FIVE PLANES OUT OF CITY

Lee Miles announced that operation of the proposed hydroplane passenger and express service between Louisville and Cincinnati will be begun early in July.

Negotiations for purchase of five hydroplanes have been opened in Washington with the Navy Department by representatives of the Ohio Valley Aerial Transportation Company, which will operate the line.

Mr. Miles said the planes are in the Brooklyn Navy Yard awaiting final acceptance by the company. Each machine has a capacity of six passengers, with baggage, or an equivalent weight of freight only.

MARRY IN INDIANA

Mr. Otis Splinks and Miss Emma Vance, of near Hartford, "put one over" on their friends Sunday, when they had Mr. Raymond Phillips take them in his car to Rockport, Ind., where they were united in matrimony.

Johnson Feared Landslide

The Johnson managers, fearing a landslide was impending, then made their last play to save the fortunes of their candidate. They moved for a recess for a couple of hours in order to make an inventory, and seek a new combination.

The Wood and Lowden forces, both virtually at the peak of their strength, but both disheartened at the long string of ballots without material gains, fell in with the recess plan and the convention adopted it.

In a dramatic succession of conferences that followed the fate of the candidates was virtually sealed. Some of the Wood and Lowden managers tried ineffectually for an agreement which would hold their delegates in line, and kill off the Harding boom, and some tried to get a Wood-Lowden-Johnson agreement to adjourn until Monday without making a nomination. There was also a conference between Johnson and Harding supporters in which the Ohioan's supporters tried without success to have the remaining Johnson strength swung to Harding.

Lowden Throws Up Sponge. There was a parley between Harding and Lowden men, however, which apparently bore more fruit when the balloting began again, for Governor Lowden came to the convention during the ninth roll call and, reversing his previous plan to go before the convention itself, issued instructions from behind the scenes releasing his instructed delegates.

Senator Harding was also in the Coliseum platform during the voting, and conferred with Chairman Hays.

SOUTHERN VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton Holbrook and Miss Mariam Smith, of Orlando, Florida, arrived in Hartford, Thursday, to visit Mr. Holbrook's father, Mr. J. D. Holbrook, a few days. They will go from here to Michigan, from whence, after purchasing a Hudson touring car, they will motor through to their southern home.

MR. AND MRS. F. L. FELIX RETURN FROM MIAMI FLORIDA

After spending the winter and spring in Miami, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Felix have returned to Kentucky. Mr. Felix arrived in Hartford, last Tuesday, while Mrs. Felix is spending a few days with relatives in Louisville, before returning here for the summer.

ing, and Lowden men, however, which apparently bore more fruit when the balloting began again, for Governor Lowden came to the convention during the ninth roll call and, reversing his previous plan to go before the convention itself, issued instructions from behind the scenes releasing his instructed delegates.

Senator Harding was also in the Coliseum platform during the voting, and conferred with Chairman Hays.

Almost as soon as the alphabetical call of states began after the recess, the ground swell for Harding demonstrated it could not be forestalled.

Kentucky For Harding. Connecticut took thirteen of her fourteen votes from Lowden, and gave them to Harding. In Florida he got seven from Wood. Then Kentucky almost from the first a solid Lowden state, flopped complete into the Harding column.

Amid scenes of rising enthusiasm other blocks of Lowden delegates followed suit, while many routed Wood supporters also went into the Harding camp.

By the end of the roll call Harding had rolled up a total of 374, putting him far into the lead, several score votes nearer the nomination than any of the candidates had been before.

SUES FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Rosa E. Stiles, of Whitesville, has filed suit for divorce from her husband, John Stiles, and alimony to the amount of $3500. She also asks $50 per month temporary alimony, pending litigation.

John Stiles is the man recently arrested and placed in jail, here, to await the action of the grand jury at the July session of Circuit Court. He is charged with committing incest.

SOCIAL CLUB ENTERTAINED

The Ladies' Social Club met at the home of Mrs. W. C. Blankenship, Wednesday afternoon, and were entertained by Mrs. Blankenship and Mrs. M. L. McCracken. This was one of the most delightful meetings of the club in recent months.

A very delicious luncheon was served at the conclusion of an interesting series of ruck games. A large per cent of the members were present. Others who attended are:

307 with which he ended the eighth, and General Wood's strength had fallen from 299 on the eighth to 249 on the ninth. Johnson dropped from 87 to 82.

Pennsylvania In Line

As the tenth roll call began the delegates quit Lowden, Wood, and Johnson right and left and the big hall was in almost continuous applause as state after state announced accession to the Harding standard. It was reserved for Pennsylvania to add the crowning touch of enthusiasm. When the Keystone state was reached, the Ohio senator needed thirty-two votes to nominate him and Pennsylvania gave him sixty. It was Governor Sprout, himself a dark horse candidate, who announced the big Pennsylvania vote for Harding.

Big Demonstration Follows

A demonstration of many minutes followed, most of the delegates standing and cheering while the procession carrying large picture of the candidates marched around the hall.

When it was seen a candidate had been nominated the customary changing of votes began. Most of the Illinois delegation deserted its governor and many Wood men too, along with the votes representing other candidates, and had their votes recorded for Harding. The final check up showed 692 for Harding, with only twelve left supporting Lowden, 157 for Wood, and 80 for Johnson.

Mesdames W. C. Overhults and Henderson Murphree, and Miss Myrtle Maddox.

DUNCAN—ROWE

Mr. Duncan is a very industrious young man and is well liked by all who know him.

TEACHERS RECEIVE GRADES MADE IN MAY EXAMINATION

Many Teachers Having Successful Records Make Second Class or Fail

The County School Superintendent has received the grades of those who applied for teachers certificates, at the May examination.

Under a law passed by the recent legislature, the papers were graded by the State Board of Examiners at Frankfort. The results of this examination are very peculiar, as some of our best teachers, who have been for several years teaching under First class certificates, either failed or made Second class certificates. There is considerable objection to this part of the new school law, for successful teaching experience, personality, morality, etc. are supposed to be considered in granting certificates. Under this system, of grading at Frankfort, those who examine the papers have never seen the applicants and know nothing of their personality, success as teachers, etc.

39 took this examination, and of this number, 10 made First class certificates, 14 made Second class and 15 failed. The highest grade was made by D. D. Moseley, Hartford, R. 6. His average was 91 11-12. The second highest grade was made by Claud Park, Horse Branch. His grade was 90 10-12. The third highest grade was made by Geo. T. Brown, Rockport, who made an average of 90 1/4.

Others who made certificates are: L. G. Miller, Beaver Dam; Mrs. Mae Lee, Beaver Dam; Ray Cook, Hartford; Arvin Lelsure, McHenry; Mrs. Dona H. Henning, Hartford; Norine Coleman, Beaver Dam; Roy T. Stewart, Beaver Dam; R. C. Jett, Hartford; O. N. Stewart, Beaver Dam; Ernestine Ralph, Hartford; Jennie Willis, Reynolds; Nova Ross, Beaver Dam; Pauline Rhoads, Hartford; Mary Byers, Horse Branch; Catherine Davison, Barretts Ferry; Mrs. Iva E. Lee, Hartford; Irene Odell, Fordsville; Ida Matthews, Centertown; W. C. Green, Balzertown; W. R. Carson, Jr., Hartford; Bessie Russell, Echols.

CHEAPER SUGAR FROM ORIENT ON WAY TO U. S.

Seattle, June 7.—Japanese centrifugal sugar can be delivered in Seattle, for approximately $17 a hundred pounds, according to information received from Kobe by a Seattle importing company. The information said between 30,000 and 50,000 tons are available for export. Another firm announced 55,000 tons of Japanese, Formosan and Javanese sugar would be shipped direct to New York and about 5,000 tons to San Francisco.

ACCEPTS POSITION IN W. VA.

Mr. James A. Tate has accepted a clerical position with the Elkhorn, Piney Coal Co., at Stanford, W. Va., and left Tuesday morning to begin his new duties. Mr. Tate has been a deputy in the office of the County Clerk since returning from the A. E. F., and is an ambitious and progressive young man. We regret to see him leave our city.

NEW REAL ESTATE COMPANY FORMED HERE

J. Leslie Hagerman and Lyman G. Barrett have formed a real estate company, and will have their headquarters here. The new firm will bear the name Barrett & Hagerman and will sell city and farm property in Ohio County.

Mr. Richard Williamson, of Wysox, visited "A FRIEND" from Saturday until Monday. He seems to be interested in either the town or some certain citizen. We believe he is interested in the automobile business.

The Shinkle Chapel church will have a Home Coming the 4th Sunday in June, which is the 27th. All former members of this church and former citizens of this neighborhood are cordially invited to be present.

The 3rd of July celebration at the Ohio County Fair Ground, is a very popular event, as it is really a celebration of the great day of INDEPENDENCE.

CONGRESS INACTIVE IN FIGHT TO LOWER H. C. L.

Scored For Failure to Act On Suggestions From the White House

Washington, D. C.—The inactivity of Congress while an orgy of profiteering continued and the failure of the legislative branch to consider six separate recommendations made by the President to check profiteering were brought to public attention recently in a speech made by Senator Walsh of Massachusetts.

Senator Walsh recited the enormous profits made by various profiteering interests, and warned that discontent and national unrest were increasing while Congress remained passive.

"The inactivity of Congress," he exclaimed, "presents a spectacle of indifference that has seldom been surpassed since the countiers of Louis XIV revelled while the French peasants were eating grass. While the story of profiteering is being recited from pulpit and soap box, prices continue to rise unhindered and unchecked."

Recalling that the President had asked action many months ago, Senator Walsh said that it was "not amiss to pause here and point to the positively wanton indifference and irresponsiveness of Congress to the proposals made thus far to alleviate the suffering of our people."

Demanding to know why action had not been taken on the many suggestions for relieving the situation, Senator Walsh said that "it remains the lamentable truth that we have limited our efforts in behalf of our imposed-upon classes to a pitiful and totally cumbersome and unworkable extension of the Lever act and the organization of a Sugar Board which, so far as it appears, by the very action of the profiteers themselves has been rendered incapable of functioning."

THE GREATEST UN- ION ON EARTH

"The little story that follows is neither fact, fiction, nor parable. Because it is fact culled from the day's work, it seems worth the telling. Better still, it is but a thin cross-section of what is happening daily throughout America wherever the Lewion has hurled its battle-flags. And we need something of optimism in this day of strikes and rumors of strikes, violence and threats of violence and a promise that out of it all is coming that "nobler and better America" that lighted our way with its hopes in the darker days that have passed. It is only necessary to add that the real names have been disguised.

O'Brien, the head of a family of six, waived exemption because he believed others know better than he where he would most be needed when the call came. He landed in class 1-A, and went without bedding or asking why. He was wounded three times and gassed, and after nine months in the hospitals was discharged, the doctors advising outdoor work to stave off incipient tuberculosis.

In a canvass for new members, an American Legion worker called at his home. Neighbors who were caring for five children said that no mother was doing day work, and that O'Brien was starting his third week in search of any kind of a job he could hold down.

Stein, The American Legion Post Employment Officer, corralled him that night, and for five solid days, forgetting his own business and the drive for new recruits, trudged with him the streets of the city of brotherly love. Everywhere it was the same answer, "Too light for the job," softened, perhaps, with a smile or an "I wish we could my boy."

Strangely, he was not too light for the job "Over There" he'd help finish, although when he came to the Post no' thing of bitterness or of rancor stamped his speech or manner. There remained only that last ditch, "Let's go" spirit, that for nearly a month had driven one hundred and thirty pounds from door to door in search of work. They sent him to Mason, a member of The Legion and Captain of the Guards or one of Philadelphia's oldest industries, and Mason put him on the pay roll without asking why.

That is all, except that Stein, who neglected his business was a Jew, Mason was a Protestant, and the man they "saw through" was a Catholic without a membership card in the Legion.

STEERS PLUNGE INTO SEA AND ARE PREY OF SHARKS

Hundreds of Steers Stampeded on American Steamer in Havana Harbor, Causing Panic

Havana, June 10.—Hundreds of fine steers stampeded on board the American steamer St. Charles outside of Havana harbor Saturday afternoon, and after creating a panic on board the ship, plunged into the sea, where they became the prey of the sharks which infest the waters of Morro Castle.

Except for a comparative few that swam ashore and now are wandering about in the suburbs of this city, all the 800 steers on the St. Charles are believed to have perished.

Sanitary officers who inspected the vessel on her arrival Saturday were alarmed when they found 130 dead steers in the hold of the ship. To avoid possible danger to the people of the city, they ordered the captain of the St. Charles to put to sea and throw overboard the carcasses of the cattle that had died. While the crew was engaged in this enormous task, the steers on board became stampeded, broke down their corrals and ran amuck. Frightened, the animals ran up and down the decks and plunged overboard where the tigers of the deep were awaiting them. Four were seen to strike the water almost simultaneously, and in an instant they were dragged beneath the surface only a trail of blood telling of their fate.

Tugs were sent out to the St. Charles and found the crew virtually paralyzed with terror. For a time there was danger the vessel would drift on the rocks near the harbor entrance, but it was at last brought into port.

THIRTEEN ARE KILLED

When Rear End Collision Occurs in New York State

Fireman on No. 34 leaped from his train when a rear end collision occurred Wednesday when a train of express cars crashed into the rear end of a passenger train which had stopped about two miles from Schenectady because of engine trouble.

All but one of those killed were asleep in two Pullmans at the rear of the passenger train, Martin Doyle, of Albany, engineer of the express, died at his post, one hand being fast to the throttle when his body was found in the wreckage.

Train No. 34, a Michigan Central special with ten cars carrying express matter, disregarded signals and went at high speed into train No. 28, a New York Central passenger train, bound from Buffalo to New York, according to the story of C. Robinson, brakeman of No. 28. He said he waved a red lantern in vain and finally threw it into the cab as the express dashed by.

The Pullman at the rear of the train had twelve passengers and was demolished. Its passengers were bound for New York. Next to it was a Pullman with twenty-two passengers destined for Boston. The other cars of the passenger train were day coaches and baggage and mail cars.

33 Asleep in Two Pullmans
The train on which virtually all the killed and injured were passengers was No. 28, a New York Central passenger train from Buffalo to New York, with two pullmans, two day coaches and baggage and mail cars. The train which crashed into it was a Michigan Central special of ten cars carrying express for the American Railway Express company.

The rear car of the passenger train, a pullman in which twelve passengers were asleep, was split to pieces. Twenty-two people were asleep in the other pullman. The train had stopped in an open field between Glenville and Scotia because of a defective water pipe in the engine.

Tried to Stop Express Train
C. Robinson, flagman on the train gave the following version of the accident:

"I went back thirty car lengths and saw No. 34 coming toward me and I stayed in the middle of the track as long as I dared. She kept coming and did not blow her whistle. I waved my red lantern and threw the red fuse into the cab as it whizzed by, but I didn't see the engineer do anything."

Just before the crash came the fireman on No. 34 leaped from his cab and escaped serious injury, but Doyle, the engineer, was pinned under the wreckage and killed.

Rescuers said his hand had to be pried from his throttle.

An Accurate Corn Planter Is One of Your Best Friends

There is a big difference between the yield of crops planted with an inaccurate planter and one that is accurate. You use the same amount of seed—but the difference in the crop often amounts to as much as five, six or seven—yes, and more—bushels per acre.

Here is a point we want you to think over. If a planter misses only fifteen kernels in every 100 hills, there is a loss of five bushels per acre in the yield.

The accurate planter avoids that loss—it proves to be one of your best friends because it does faithful work and saves you money.

We want to show you the John Deere No. 999 Corn Planter—a planter that has built a first-class reputation because of its accuracy. It is just as accurate as the human hand.

You can plant 2, 3 or 4 kernels without changing seed plates or stopping the team. You can change from hilling to drilling instantly. You get nine different drilling distances without changing the plates.

We will be glad to have you call and see why this planter has been termed the accurate planter. Putting it into your field this year may save you a lot of money when you gather your crop. Let us show it to you at any rate. We'll be glad to see you, even though you aren't ready to buy now.

FALSE ECONOMY AT EXPENSE OF FARMERS

Senator Harrison Charges Majority is Unfair To Agriculture

Washington, D. C.—False economy at the expense of the agricultural interests and the food production of the country is charged against the majority party in Congress by Senator Harrison, who declares that while there have been vast appropriations for the army and navy, the agricultural appropriation bill has been cut more than seven million dollars.

While the government is urging increased production of food and moving against profiteering, Senator Harrison contends, the conference report on the agricultural budget shows an indiscriminate and harmful use of the pruning knife. Agriculture in all sections will suffer, he argues, and the consumer, as well as the farmer, will be penalized by such an "economy" program. Republican economy claims, Senator Harrison believes, will have their reaction when food production is crippled and prices go higher.

"The party in control," said Senator Harrison, "is simply trying to deceive by pretending economy in government appropriations. While reducing agricultural appropriations you have increased the army bill $250,000,000 and the navy bill $450,000,000 over the appropriations carried for the army and navy during the pre-war period."

Senator Harrison said such economy is a "pretense, a sham, and a grave injustice to farmers who helped America win the war and must now be depended upon to produce more than ever if something approaching national famine is to be averted."

"If you believe this sort of false economy, practiced upon this class of our citizens, will be rewarded in the coming elections, then you are misjudging the temper of the times and a great awakening is coming to you."

"LEAKY" AUTO GIVES CLEW TO DRY OFFICER

Lexington, Ky., June 7.—An automobile containing a keg of whisky was seized this afternoon on North Broadway by Prohibition Agent Paul Williams. No arrests were made, the owners failing to appear, although officers waited in hiding several hours.

Attention was first attracted to the machine by a leak, the liquor running out on the floor of the machine. Mr. Williams declared he believes the whisky is a portion of that stolen Wednesday night from the Fairfield distillery, Nelson County.

The automobile answers the description of the one used by the thieves, he said. The keg contained fourteen gallons of the best grade liquor. The machine will be confiscated and sold.

MADISONVILLE ORDERED TO ALTER SCHOOL SYSTEM

Frankfort, Ky., June 4.—Madisonville must discard its complicated white and common negro school districts and reorganize its system as a fourth-class city with a board of six members in control of both white and negro schools. Chief Justice Carroll held granting an injunction to J. S. Shadrack, Madisonville, against trustees of the graded white schools.

The negro school district, which includes slightly more territory than the graded district, is under the County Board.

The last General Assembly enacted a law providing for fourth-class city schools under one board, but exempting cities having special charters or ordinances of the City Council, making other provisions for organization of the schools. Madisonville does not come under either exception.

BIG OIL GUSHER STRUCK IN WARREN

Bowling Green, Ky., June 5.—The largest oil well yet completed in this territory came in late Monday afternoon on the W. N. Pearson lease a half mile west of the famous Sledge pool. A solid stream of oil six and a quarter inches in diameter was thrown sixty feet into the air. It was with great difficulty that the well was capped and the production turned into tanks on the ground. The well is estimated at from a thousand to a 1,500-barrel production. It is located in Warren at the edge of Allen county and is owned by a Wisconsin syndicate.

Have you forgotten to renew?

GOOD DEED.

The Senate Committee investigating the campaign expenses of the various candidates for the Presidential nomination has done a real service to the country. It has revealed the fact that the control of the Republican party which through Mark Hanna in 1896 became intimately identified with Big Business has not since been redeemed. It shows Governor Lowden expending nearly a half a million dollars and General Wood expending at least twice as much in order to put their claims to preference before their party, as if statesmanship were a thing to be exploited through channels of paid publicity, like patent medicines or a new brand of soft drink. That any man must, or that any man is willing to, spend a half million dollars, whether of his own or other people's money, merely to secure the nomination of his party, is a sad commentary. If it affected the nomination only, the country at large would not be so much interested; but such a practice cannot but have a demoralizing effect on the purity of elections. It cannot but make the people dissatisfied and distrustful when they are given every reason to believe that it takes a syndicate of moneyed men to select a new President, just as it takes a syndicate to float a combination in high finance. Must our President be a millionaire or one who will make it interesting to back up his ambition? We have long since been accustomed to the man seeking the office instead of the office seeking the man; are we now entering an era of President-making when a coterie of over-rich men will bring out their favorite and put him over by sheer force of organization and publicity? Unless we greatly misjudge the temper of the people, the disclosures now being made will cause a mighty protest before election day, in which every thoughtful person who loves his country, will join; for if the Presidency of America can be secured by tactics so nearly allied to the auction-block game, we are all in for an Armageddon.

GOOD ROADS MEETING

Gentlemen:

There will be held in Louisville, Ky., on June 15th, 16th and 17th, 1920, a Convention of Kentucky State Road Engineers, as well as the Kentucky Highway Association, County Judges, members of the Fiscal Courts of the State and all allied Good Road Interests.

We are assured by all members connected with this movement that this will be one of the greatest Good Road Meetings ever held in the State of Kentucky, especially as it comes at this opportune time when the new Kentucky Road Law is about to go into effect, under which there will be spent by the State Highway Department in the different Counties of the State, between four and five million dollars.

It is of vital importance that all of the County, State and City Officials interested or directly connected with this road movement get together at this time and discuss this highly important question.

Therefore, in view of all of this, the members of the Fiscal Court of Jefferson County are writing this letter to insist that your County Engineer, County Judges and all members of your Fiscal Courts attend this meeting, as well as all City Officials and Road Contractors.

Hoping to hear from you at once stating that you will come, we are Sincerely yours, Fiscal Court of Jefferson County.

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS ARE FILING PAPERS

Frankfort, Ky., June 8.—Commonwealth's Attorney John H. Gilliam, of Scottsville, filed his declaration with the Secretary of State as a candidate in the Republican primary for nomination for congressman from the Third district.

FORMER HEAD NURSE CHICAGO HOSPITAL TALKS

Prominent Trained Nurse Indorses Trutona as Efficient System Builder

Decatur, Ill., June 15.—When such a person as Mrs. Frank Torrence, of Fairview Park, Decatur, indorses Trutona, you cannot rightly countenance any further hesitation over trying the Perfect Tonic.

For fourteen years before her marriage, Mrs. Torrence was a trained nurse. She occupied the position of head nurse, for seven years at the Chicago Presbyterian hospital, and was associated with Decatur hospitals, and did private nursing during the remaining seven years of her professional career. In a plain, yet emphatic indorsement, Mrs. Torrence tells you that Trutona is in every respect, an efficient system builder. She says:

"I suffered an attack of influenza about a year ago, which left me in a run-down condition. My appetite was very poor, and I felt tired out most of the time. I began the use of Trutona, after reading the formula, which assured me that the medicine was just fitted for my case. I can say that I have received very fine results from the use of Trutona, and I can now recommend it to any one as a system builder."

Trutona's healthful action reaches every portion of the body, and performs its work faithfully and efficiently. Trutona rebuilds diseased nerve and tissues, creates a healthy appetite, and assists in the assimilation and digestion of the food.

Trutona is sold in Hartford, at James H. Williams, and in Beaver Dam, at the Beaver Dam Drug Co. —(Advertisement.)

SEVEN PERSONS DIE FROM WIND STORM

St. Paul, June 11.—Seven persons killed, more injured, and a property loss aggregating hundreds of thousands of dollars was the toll taken by a terrific wind and electrical storm which swept northwestern Minnesota and eastern North Dakota Tuesday.

Partial restoration of wire communication disclosed the slowly mounting list. Fears are expressed that final reports from sections still isolated might potentially increase the casualties count.

More than thirty Minnesota counties were more or less seriously affected by the storm which was felt with diminished intensity in Minneapolis and St. Paul. The monetary damage was confined to small houses, barns, and other outbuildings, live stock, and trees. Near Grey Eagle twenty five of thirty cottages in a summer colony at Birch Lake were leveled. One was killed, and fifteen persons were injured there, several seriously.

ALL LOTS WERE SOLD AT THE AUCTION SATURDAY

A fair sized crowd was present at the all day lot sale held by the Wakefield-Davis Realty Co., here Saturday. The greater portion of the land purchased by this company was divided into lots 25ft.x150ft. and under the terms of the sale, the purchaser of one of these lots had to pay for the one adjoining at the same price and also had the privilege of taking other lots in the same row.

The bottom land was divided into plots ranging from 1 acre to 10 acres. Mr. W. A. Brown, of Rochester, Ky., purchased the residence, for $310.00. The lots ranged in price from $20 to nearly $400 each, while the larger plots brought from approximately $100 to $180 per acre. Miss Carrie McKinney drew the card entitling her to a free lot. This was one of the best lots in the tract.
Several small cash prizes were given, throughout the day.

The members of the Wakefield-Davis Realty Co., made many friends while here, and did not leave a single promise unfulfilled. Their auctioners are indeed live wires and do not let the interest wane for one moment during a sale.

won by Buel Leach, George Davis and Rob Williams.

cream and cake were served to the class and invited guests followed by a talk and prayer by Mrs. Mallin.

The occasion was highly enjoyed by all present.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy.
Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, etc.

FOUR TIMES A CHAMPION

Stories of the successes of boys and girls in club work, are always good reading. Here is one lifted bodily from the Southern Agriculturalist:

Many people would say Lona Fish, of Madison County, Kentucky, was an extremely lucky boy because he has been state champion in boys' club work for four successive years. The writer has visited Lona Fish on his father's farm and knows positively that luck had nothing to do with it. The boy has been fortunate in learning very early in life the value of digging at, of grading at, and of sticking to the thing he begins. In other words, the enthusiasm with which he starts a piece of work always lasts until he has been thoroughly successful.

Here is this country boy's big and unusual record. He joined the Corn Club in 1913 and succeeded in raising sixty-five bushels to the acre. Each succeeding year he harvested a heavier crop, until in 1916 he became state corn champion with 114 bushels and 7 pounds to his credit.

During his second year in the Corn Club, Lona became an active and enthusiastic member of the Pig Club. Again he groomed himself for a state championship and in four years he attained his goal.

The same year he entered the Pig Club and was busy with his second year's corn crop. Lona joined the Poultry Club. He at once became intensely interested in his flock of pure-bred Single Comb White Leghorns. Five years later he was proclaimed state champion in the Poultry Club. Not content with winning three state championships in different types of club work, this energetic youngster enlarged his flock of hens and has again been named state champion in the Poultry Club for 1919. He won in corn in 1916, in handling a pig in 1917, in poultry in 1918, and again in 1919.

At the present writing this young farmer has a large flock of hens and is making money as well as fame as a state champion. His books this season show that he has earned more than $500 from his flock.

Lona's success in club work is the kind of success which comes to grown men and women on farms, in factories or in offices when they plug and plug intelligently. His success has come from plenty of work, lots of study and a rational amount of perseverance. Lona Fish's success should make every boy and girl in the United States anxious to become active members of clubs.

Animal Husbandry

The Livestock Exchange announces the shipment on May 10th of three Holstein Bulls to Fulton County, O. L. Cunningham, the county agent, has organized a number of Dairy Clubs and the bankers are furnishing the money to buy the bulls in order that the dairy stock of the county may be improved. Two more bulls are to be shipped later. They are all very high bred animals all from heavy producing dams and grand dams. In a few years they will transform the dairy cows of that section of Kentucky. The bulls were secured from the Cotstream Farm, Fayette County. They cost $500 each. What county will follow suit?

The Livestock Exchange has not for several months been able to locate any yearling or two-year-old registered sheep for sale. We suggest that the best plan to secure purchased sheep for the coming year is to buy them from this year's crop of lambs. The Exchange will have a lot of available lambs of the different breeds prepared during the month of June, and this will be sent out about July 1st. We urge all those needing sheep to make immediate selections of what they shall want and have them shipped in the fall when the lambs can be taken from their mothers.

There will be a class offering $50.00 in premiums at the Kentucky State Fair to the county agents sending in the largest number of entries of the following classes: Butter to market, milk, cream, certified cream and cottage cheese. More information regarding this will be given in the State Fair Catalog which should be out some time in July.

Agricultural Engineering

Hot weather and the fly season will soon be here, therefore special effort should be made to guard against the spread of disease through the medium of the old fashioned privy. Even though it is not possible for every farmer to install running water and a sanitary sewage disposal plant in his home he can at least so construct his outhouse, with little expense, that it is impossible for a fly to feed on human excrement and then travel to the baby's bottle or the table to deposit germs.

Screens, a closed outhouse, and a clean water supply provided now, will prevent the children's sickness this summer.

Plans and suggestions for a sanitary outhouse or aid in the design and construction of a modern water supply and sewage disposal plant may be obtained by writing to the Agricultural Engineer of the Extension Department.

Agronomy

The Department of Agronomy has a bulletin ready for the press giving a report of the results to date from the soil experiment fields. A section of the bulletin is devoted to the subject, "Maintenance of Fertility."

A brief resume of the results has been prepared in mimeographed form which will be furnished in reasonable numbers to county agents and others interested until the bulletin comes from the press.

Home Demonstration

The coming season is approaching and on account of the possible shortage of food stuffs and the high prices, a large supply of fruits and vegetables should be stored for winter use. Unfortunately the idea is prevalent among housewives that home canned foods are unsafe. Should you meet this, remind them of the safety rules; food material, whole and sound; containers and rubbers, perfect; the full time required for cooking; and cleanliness of person, surroundings and utensils.

Club Work

The Junior Agricultural Club Department is planning to hold a club leaders conference June 21st to 25th at Lexington. Local club leaders will be invited to attend from as many as twenty counties in the State. It is the object of this conference to give first hand information and inspiration to local county club leaders that will be of assistance to them in putting across a big program for the boys and girls for the remainder of this year and next.

Relations of County Agents To County Farm Bureaus As Outlined

By State Agent, C. A. Mahan

The county agent is a man having scientific agricultural training and practical experience, is employed for the improvement of agricultural education and extension by the University and paid jointly from extension funds and local county funds, where a co-operative working agreement exists. All supervision from the University of Kentucky, the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Executive Committee of the County Farm Bureau, shall be through or with the approval of the supervising officers of the extension department. Any agent who becomes active in lines other than agricultural education and extension is misusing his office and training and violating the rulings of the Smith-Lever Law. All parties concerned must know and keep in mind the fact that public money is legally used for education and extension of education, and cannot under penalty of failure be used for benefit of personal or class gain, and has never been so used legally, in any country at any time.

The farm bureau may become active along many lines which are directed entirely towards personal and class gain, but in such activities the county agent cannot legally co-operate. One important part of a county farm bureau program shall be agricultural education. In this the county agent should co-operate to the fullest possible extent. This does not mean the county agent should carry the whole burden, but he should take active part in making plans for effective educational and extension purposes. The educational projects are purely co-operative between the farmers the county agent and extension specialists. Each community of farmers should determine the needs which should be included in their programs, and on which they are willing to share responsibility with certain parts assigned local leaders for attention. The county agent should endeavor to over-see all of these projects, assist in making plans and bring in extension specialists who can give expert assistance along the lines undertaken.

Whenever a county agent or a farm bureau tries to stretch the interpretation on the terms "education and extension" to the point of leaning heavily on the side of personal or class profit, they are following the road of easy popularity which leads to certain destruction. All agents are therefore urged to study their projects carefully, and be certain their undertakings will stand the test above outlined and be approved by the Federal representative, for the day of reckoning is certain to come, and through poor judgment on the agent's part, his work, the farm bureau and the Extension Service may suffer serious damage.

WANT TO BE NOTICED

A more complete report of Masonic Banquet at Cronwell. There have been two previous reports of the Masonic banquet given at Cronwell on the 15th ult. The party who wrote the last report surely was not present at the banquet or else ate so much he forgot really what happened. The ladies were left out entirely while it was by their efforts it was made a grand success. It was a joint banquet of the Cronwell Lodge F. & A. M. and Cronwell Chapter O. E. S. There were invited guests of the Lodge F. & A. M. from Morgantown, Logansport, Beaver Dam, McHenry, Centertown and Hartford. And guests from Beaver Dam and Logansport O. E. S.

The Cronwell chapter O. E. S. convened at 3:00 p. m. and initiated a candidate into Logansport Chapter. Past Grand Master T. J. Adams Supt. of the Masonic Widows and Orphans Home was present and made a very interesting and instructive address, after which came the eats and the men (Masons). The banquet was served at 6:30 p. m. to about 300 people, which consisted of mutton, chicken, ham, salads coffee, cake and cream and other things.

It made one feel that they were in the land flowing with milk and honey. After which Cronwell Lodge F. & A. M. convened and raised two candidates to the Master's degree. Bro. Adams being present also officiating in the work and giving a fine talk. Each departed at a late hour feeling a deeper interest in the work and that friendship ties and the love for humanity had been strengthened.

Takes Hold Ad Helps

Colds that "hang on" should be gotten rid of, for no one can stand the strain of racking cough, disturbed sleep and irritation of throat and lungs. Marie Heister, Freeport, Ill., writes: "I had more or less of a cough for years and I have taken quite a number of medicines. None of them takes hold and helps like Foley's Honey and Tar." This old, reliable cough syrup promptly helps coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Contains no opiates, Children like it.

MORE EVIDENCE!

Of the Dependability of the Goods We Carry

One day last month while driving a wagon loaded to capacity with coal, Mr. G. W. Botts happened to a most unusual accident. When he reached the corner of Third and Daviess streets, a large elm tree, 32 inches in diameter at the base, blew over and fell directly across the center of his wagon. Had it not been for the fact that the team lunged forward as the tree fell, Mr. Botts would have, no doubt, been struck by it and perhaps killed.

Upon investigation, we found that we had sold this wagon about twenty years ago.

The Picture Below is Evidence of the Truth Of This Incident

But what is of more importance is the fact that it is evidence of the dependability of our line of goods,

After a wagon has given good service for twenty years and then stand such a test as this, it is our opinion that the owner got his money's worth.

Bain and Weber Wagons STAND UP

This has been proved over and over again right here in our part of the state. The wood stock and workmanship absolutely cannot be excelled, and we buy in such quantities as to insure you the very best goods on the market at a price in reach of all and cheaper than they can now be bought in car quantities.

We have these wagons in the regular WIDE TRACK. Remember, there has been over five thousand wide track wagons sold in this and surrounding counties, and it is these wagons which are going to make the track to market next fall. The wide track wagon is here to stay, as long as we have dirt roads, and one would do well to line up with them.

Come in, when in town, and let us demonstrate these wagons to you.

banish effects of kidney and bladder trouble by removing the cause. They are healing and curative. They tone up and strengthen the weakened or diseased organs. They relieve backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints, sore muscles.

W. W. Wells, Tonquin, Mich., writes: "I get great relief from taking Foley Kidney Pills. I am on my feet most of the time and get tired out. After taking Foley Kidney Pills, they make me feel like a new man. I recommend them to my customers and never have heard of any case where they did not give satisfaction."

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

The Interior Journal has been on the side of President Wilson all the time in regard to the League of Nations. We believe that the war was fought in vain if the Republicans are allowed to destroy the League, as they have so far succeeded in doing. They pretend that it is necessary to amend the League covenant by reserving definitely the right to Congress to declare war, as if there were or could be any other way to declare war under our constitution. The other reservations they offer are as much balldash as the one reserving the right to declare war. The chief trouble is that by a campaign of misrepresentation the Republican leaders in the Senate have actually got the people to believing that the League covenant takes away from Congress the right to declare war and vests it in the hands of the President. This may appeal to the thoughtless but if the people stop to think they will remember that there is but one way to change the constitution of the United States and that is not by treaty with other nations but by the sober judgment of the people of the states as expressed by the state legislatures.

The President is right in urging upon Democrats that they stand firmly for the League of Nations. Until that league is a fact, an enforced fact, so far as Germany and nations like her are concerned, the menace of war will hang over the world always. With the women voting this year there should be no doubt of the victory of the League of Nations. Their sons and husbands have furnished the fuel to run the great engines of war in the past. They will see to it that war is made, if not impossible, at least a hazardous business for those autocrats that may be left to tinker with the game of world empire. The treaty should be ratified and the majority of the American people, we believe, are willing to leave the matter in the hands of the great President who has guided the country through eight years of the most trying period of its existence.

When the history of the Wilson administration is written in the years to come by the impartial historian one of its greatest achievements will be recorded as the League of Nations, a document which has brought nearer

"The parliament of man
The Federation of the World."

I am going to keep on taking them." Mrs. Chas. Gray, 270 6th St., Detroit, Mich.

Weber Wagon Value

At half price would you purchase any automobile in 60-inch track?

At half price could you sell to a farmer any automobile in 60-inch track?

Why mislead a farmer into buying a farm wagon that won't track with the automobile?

What better path could a wagon use than the one made as shown above?

When you purchase a Weber Farm Wagon you get more than just a farm wagon. That fact alone is worth looking into.

Some wagons are sold more for the purpose of making a sale and as large a profit as possible than for giving service.

Some dealers are antagonistic to the Standard Track (the one track for every section of the United States) for farm wagons; the 56-inch auto track (not wide or narrow) because they have not got the agency for the Weber.

Some dealers will talk a farmer into buying a 60-inch old-track farm wagon, but when such a dealer goes into the country on business or pleasure does he use a 60-inch track farm wagon, leaving his automobile at home because the 56-inch track is wrong? NO, he uses 56-inch track to go anywhere and everywhere.

Ask the dealers selling automobiles if they have any trouble selling 56-inch track—if they could sell automobiles in 60-inch track even at half price. The answer will be NO.

What track should your new farm wagon be? The Standard 56-inch track, which is neither wide nor narrow.
